ARGENTINA

General

National strike in Argentina on 29 May 2019. Government services such as ATC and Customs are planned to be impacted. Avoid flight planning in the FIR as well as operation into and out of the country.

CURACAO

General

When overflying the TNCF FIR, Navigation fees must be prepaid in advance to avoid possible rejection of flight plan from Curacao. Reference <https://billing.dc-ansp.org/> for payment information.

PERU

SPJC/Jorge Chavez Intl

The airport is closed to all BA/GA during these times:

April 4th until July 31st 2019 from 0100-0400Z AND 1300-1600Z (to reduce airport traffic congestion)

June 1st thru June 15th from 0630-0930Z (runway maintenance work)

VENEZUELA

General

On May 1st the FAA issued an emergency -DO NOT FLY- NOTAM to all US operators, barring all operations into or over Venezuela, unless operating at or above FL260. NOTAM KICZ A0013/19 issued May 1 2019, 0025Z

General

The Instituto Nacional de Aeronautica Civil (INAC) in Venezuela recently disabled their ITALBANK account which was used by accounts payable departments to make payments for Venezuelan overflight and navigation fees in the past. Operators are now instructed to use a third party source called Jet Man Pay to make these payments to INAC. Local handling agent have stated that they can assist with the payment process thru the use of Jet Man Pay.

NORTH AMERICA

CANADA

CYFB/Iqaluit

Due to very limited fuel quantities for the spring months, Jet A is only available to locally based operators until the beginning of August 2019

CYYR/Goose Bay

Aircraft having a tire pressure of 1.0MPA, an ACN/PN of 40 or higher or a weight over 135 tons are now banned from CYYR UFN due to damage that was incurred to their runways from heavy (airline size) aircraft. NOTAMs may be published latter on when this ban may be lifted once repairs and reinforcement of their runway and taxiways can be made. CYYR is often used by many airline size aircraft as an ETP and as an alternate so operators that cross the North Atlantic should pay particular attention to this closure/ban.
